

FideliTrade Incorporated's Leonard Minner has been recognized in Philadelphia Business Journal's CFO of The Year - Class Of 2021.

On June 16, 2021, the Philadelphia Business Journal announced that it has named Leonard Minner to the CFO of the Year - Class of 2021.

The Business Journal considers nominations from the local business community and selects winners based on criteria including demonstrated contributions to the company's growth and/or profitability, tenure and scope of responsibilities, leadership, success in overcoming business challenges, respect and influence within the company, and community involvement. The Philadelphia Business Journal is proud to recognize CFOs in the region who have risen to the challenge not just this past year, but throughout their careers.

The honorees will be recognized in a virtual event on July 29 and a special publication on July 30. Register for the virtual event here: <https://www.bizjournals.com/philadelphia/event/166406/2021/cfo-of-the-year-awards>.

Len Minner has been acting CFO of FideliTrade and its subsidiaries for 11 years. During this time Len has been appointed two company boards and has also taken on the role of IT Director. Len received his Bachelors in Accounting and Associates in Finance from Goldey Beacom College. He's also a member of the Delaware Society of CPA's and American Institute of CPA's.

"I am deeply honored to have been designated as one of the 2021 CFO of the Year award winners by the Philadelphia Business Journal. It has been an enjoyable experience working with the FideliTrade team to create a culture that promotes employee innovation and a commitment to our customers. I look forward to helping FideliTrade and our customers achieve continued success through new technology and quickly adapting to changing business needs."

FideliTrade Incorporated is a precious metals commodities firm that offers investment services to individual investors, financial advisors, and trust & estate professionals. Gold, silver and platinum coins and bars are available for delivery, or they can be held in our insured depository. FideliTrade also trades commercially with financial institutions and is an authorized purchaser of the U.S. Mint.